

St. Augustine Easter Week Festival

hosted by the

The St. Augustine Royal Family

Dear Friends,

The St. Augustine Royal Family and Easter Parade has been a family tradition bringing delight to children and families for over 65 years. The floats and performances celebrate the things we love about our city and showcases local businesses, schools, and non-profit organizations.

Here are some amazing facts about SAEWF and Royal Family:

- The Organization travels to promote St. Augustine's History.
- It is a 501 (c) 3 Not-for-Profit charity
- There are no paid staff members. The SAEWF and Royal Family is completely organized and run by a handful of dedicated volunteers.

Here is another fact:

Parades are expensive, around $15,000. Costs include, but are not limited to: liability insurance, traffic and crowd control, barricades, traffic signage, advertising, rental equipment, storage, and contract labor. Due to contemporary events, insurance and traffic/crowd control costs significantly increase each year.

In order to continue to provide this time honored tradition, we need corporate and private monetary sponsors.

This year's parade will be on Saturday, April 19, 2025, in downtown St. Augustine.
